

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE DISTRICT OF NEBRASKA

KEVIN B. HARRIS,)) Plaintiff,)) v.)) DOUGLAS COUNTY SHERIFF'S DEPARTMENT,)) Defendant.)	CASE NO. 8:07CV395	MEMORANDUM AND ORDER
---	----------------------------------	--

The plaintiff, Kevin B. Harris, a prisoner, has filed a civil complaint and a motion to proceed in forma pauperis ("IFP") (Filing No. 2). The court has received a certified copy of the plaintiff's trust account information (Filing No. 7). The plaintiff is permitted to proceed IFP.

Pursuant to the Prison Litigation Reform Act, a prisoner plaintiff is required to pay the full amount of the court's $350.00 filing fee by making monthly payments to the court, even if the prisoner is proceeding IFP. 28 U.S.C. § 1915(b). "[T]he PLRA makes prisoners responsible for their filing fees the moment the prisoner brings a civil action or files an appeal." In re Tyler, 110 F.3d 528, 529-30 (8th Cir. 1997); Jackson v. N.P. Dodge Realty Co., 173 F. Supp.2d 951 (D. Neb. 2001).

First, the plaintiff must pay an initial partial filing fee in the amount of 20 percent of the greater of the plaintiff's average monthly account balance or average monthly deposits for the six months preceding the filing of the complaint. I find that the initial partial filing fee is $38.96. Payment of the initial partial filing fee must be received by the court by November 19, 2007, in the absence of which this matter may be subject to dismissal. The plaintiff may request an extension of time if needed.

In addition to the initial partial filing fee, the plaintiff must "make monthly payments of 20 percent of the preceding month's income credited to the prisoner's account." 28 U.S.C. § 1915(b)(2). The statute places the burden on the prisoner's institution to collect the additional monthly payments and forward them to the Court. 28 U.S.C. § 1915(b). Therefore, after payment in full of the initial partial filing fee, the remaining installments shall be collected pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1915(b)(2):

After payment of the initial partial filing fee, the prisoner shall be required to make monthly payments of 20 percent of the preceding month's income credited to the prisoner's account. The agency having custody of the prisoner shall forward payments from the prisoner's account to the clerk of the court each time the amount in the account exceeds $10 until the filing fees are paid.

The plaintiff will remain responsible for the entire filing fee, as long as he is a prisoner, even if the case is dismissed at some later time. See In re Tyler, 110 F.3d 528, 529-30 (8th Cir. 1997); Jackson v. N.P. Dodge Realty Co., 173 F. Supp.2d 951 (D. Neb. 2001).

The trust account statement received from the Lincoln Correctional Center states the plaintiff has been transferred to the Nebraska Department of Correctional Services on October 3, 2007. Mail sent by the clerk to the plaintiff on October 9, 2007 has been returned, and was resent by the clerk to P.O Box 22800, Lincoln Nebraska 68542-2200. The plaintiff is reminded that pursuant to Nebraska General Rule 1.3(e), a party whose address has changed from that previously provided in any ongoing case must file and serve a notice of his change of address.

THEREFORE, IT IS ORDERED:

1. That Filing No. 2, the plaintiff's motion to proceed IFP, is granted;

2. That the plaintiff shall pay an initial partial filing fee of $38.96 by November 19, 2007, unless an enlargement of time is granted in response to a written motion; in the absence of the initial partial filing fee by the specified deadline, this case may be subject to dismissal;
3. That, after payment of the initial partial filing fee, the plaintiff's institution shall collect the additional monthly payments in the manner set forth in 28 U.S.C. § 1915(b)(2), quoted above, and shall forward those installments to the court;
4. That the Clerk of Court shall send a copy of this order to the appropriate official at the Nebraska Department of Correctional Services ;
5. The plaintiff is bound by the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and by the court's Local Rules while this case is pending. He shall keep the court informed of his current address at all times. On or before November 5, 2007, the plaintiff shall file a notice of address change, in the absence of which this case may be dismissed without further notice; and
6. The Clerk of the court is directed to set the following pro se case management deadlines using the following text: (1) November 5, 2007—deadline for notification of change of address; and (2) November 19, 2007—initial filing fee payment due.

DATED this 16th day of October, 2007.

BY THE COURT:

s/Laurie Smith Camp
United States District Judge

NOTICE REGARDING SUMMONS FORMS FOR PRO SE PRISONERS
PROCEEDING IN FORMA PAUPERIS

A prisoner who is proceeding pro se and in forma pauperis as the plaintiff in a civil case shall not provide the court with summons forms (or Form 285) for service of process on the defendant(s) until notified to do so by the Clerk of Court.

The Prison Litigation Reform Act ("PLRA") requires the court to screen complaints brought by prisoners. Therefore, the court conducts "initial review" of a complaint filed by a prisoner before any summons can be served on a defendant. Generally, the court conducts "initial review" shortly after the Clerk of Court receives the initial partial filing fee from the plaintiff. After the initial partial filing fee has been paid, and initial review has been completed, the Clerk of Court arranges for service of process as follows:

1. The Clerk of Court will be directed by a District Judge or Magistrate Judge to send the plaintiff a blank summons form for each defendant named in the caption of the case, together with Form 285.

2. The plaintiff shall thereafter complete the summons form(s) and Form 285, because without those forms, service of process cannot occur.

3. The plaintiff shall then mail the completed summons form(s) and Form 285 to the Clerk of Court. Upon receipt of the completed forms from the plaintiff, the Clerk of Court will sign the summons form(s) to be sent by the Clerk, together with a copy of the complaint for each defendant, to the U.S. Marshal for service on the defendant(s).

4. Because the plaintiff is proceeding in forma pauperis, the plaintiff is not responsible for copying the complaint or arranging for service of process.

THEREFORE, ALL PLAINTIFFS ARE REQUESTED NOT TO SEND SUMMONS FORMS TO THE COURT UNLESS THE CLERK OF COURT HAS FIRST SENT THE FORMS TO THE PLAINTIFF AFTER "INITIAL REVIEW" HAS BEEN COMPLETED, AS STATED ABOVE.
